Introduction

In this career education focused course, we will look at how successful career and education paths require planning, evaluating, and adapting. Each person has a network of family, friends and community members that can support and broaden our career awareness and options.

This course is designed to be completed within a semester. Students who do not finish within the semester will need to discuss options with their teacher.

Topics in Career Life Education

Unit 1: Digital Literacy

Unit 2: Career Foundations

Unit 3: Dream Careers

Unit 4: Getting the job

Unit 5: Keeping the job

Unit 6: The Paycheque and Beyond

Unit 7: F is for the Future

Assessment

Assignments: 90%

Participation: 10%

As this course is an on-line course:

Participation marks will come from on-line contributions to discussion boards, as well as attendance at special events and guest speakers. (When offered)

- Your grade will be determined based upon the quality of the work submitted.
- Assignments in the course are generally weighted based on the size of the assignment.
- Students are welcome to revise and resubmit assignments after working with the teacher to develop skills and ideas.
- When the authenticity of student work is in question, the teacher reserves the right to base final grades on teacher supervised assignments and assessments.
- Plagiarized work will be given zero! Students will be expected to re-do such work.
